

INTERESTING ELECTION FACTS

It wasn't until 1856 that Congress removed property ownership as a requirement to vote in elections.

The oldest president to be elected is Ronald Reagan at 69 years old. The youngest is John F. Kennedy at age 34.

The Constitution does not state when Election Day should be, which meant that in the early 1880s, people could vote from April to December.

William Henry Harrison's inaugural speech was two hours long, given in a heavy snowstorm, which made him catch a cold and ultimately die from pneumonia one month later.

It is illegal to drink alcohol in Kentucky and South Carolina on Election Day.
